Descripcion

On Camino Medellín near the bucolic Route 104 and Manantiales, you will find this impressive estate with a total of 86.4 acres of bucolic landscape. The main house was built in 2014 and boasts a solid modern construction, all on one level. It comprises a total of 7 en-suite bedrooms, 2 spacious living rooms, a dining room for 12, a well-equipped large kitchen, and a guest toilet. The estate features underfloor heating and 3 stoves, 2 of which are high-performance. Additionally, there is a spacious covered barbecue area, a pool with a deck and bar, a caretaker's house with 3 bedrooms, a large deposit/shed, and 4 garages, plus another large parking area. The house's finishes were done with noble materials and it is furnished with high-quality furniture. All rooms in the house have access to the outdoors and offer very incredible views of the bucolic country side.

Camino Medellín, which connects Route 104 with Route 10 and the sea, is a promising, in-demand-area and strategically located due to its proximity to Manantiales and Jose Ignacio. In another sense, it is an ideal place to immerse oneself in nature.
